Whereas, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives hold in high esteem those Show-Me State residents who brought honor and glory to themselves and to this great state through the excellence of their achievements in their chosen fields of endeavor; and

Whereas, the late Steve McQueen, who died in 1980 at the age of 50, attained considerable distinction as an actor and motor sports enthusiast who was known as the King of Cool; and

Whereas, the life and work of Steve McQueen will be honored in his hometown of Slater, Missouri, on Saturday, March 24, 2007, which will be known locally as Steve McQueen Day; and

Whereas, an actor during the 1950s, 1960s, and 1970s, Steve McQueen was in more than thirty films; and

Whereas, Steve McQueen Day is truly a community effort in Slater where the actor spent twelve years of his childhood; and

Whereas, still as popular today as he was at the time of his death, Steve McQueen is a fitting and proper subject for the townspeople of Slater to commemorate:
